2013 TOKYO-MILANO - Theater Workshop-Collaboration

Dear Ms. Marina Spreafico!

As the oldest College of Drama and Music in Japan we have a long tradition of international collaboration around the world. This time we feel very proud to get the opportunity to visit the first time one of the theatrical capital in the world, Milano, in order to study Italian and Europe theatre techniques at the TEATRO ARCENALE.

TEATRO ARCENALE is famous for their commitment to contemporary theatre and also the high quality of teaching Comedia dell'Arte and Jacques Lecoq-Technique. We have chosen to work together with TEATRO ARCENALE, because the experience and profession and history of this institution. We also want to thank Mr. Kuniaki Ida for his support to this workshop project.

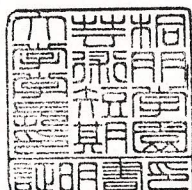

Looking forward to March 2013!

Sincerely
